

The Scorch Sisters – The three ladies of The Scorch Sisters found their way west to come together in Los Angeles. It was a good spot to grow, as the sisters have climbed through the LA Blues ranks to snag stage time on the Sunset Strip's House of Blues. Guitarist and Kansas City area native Kimberly K. Allison began playing in bars at sixteen; NYC born, Florida grown keyboardist Alicia Morgan made her way west for session work due to her raspy blues style, and vocal coach/actress/singer/songwriter Francesca Capasso was born in Texas, but moved to Puerto Rico at a young age with her secret service Dad.
